EDITOR'S MESSAGE ..

Eng. Ghosson Al-Khaled
COO
ACICO Industries

First and foremost allow me to offer you all my best wishes on the advent of the New Year hoping it will be a year of accomplishments to our goals and aspirations.

During 2015, we, at ACICO, shall proceed with our success record which we started a long time ago. After we have overcome a number of challenges, we have become more determined and confident to develop the various sectors of our company. We have become more able in analyzing crises and utilizing this in our future project on domestic and global levels.

Our financial results will prove our continuous success.

I am hopeful that the 4th Volume of ACICO News will be well received by you looking forward to other meetings in the forthcoming newsletters.

A Happy New Year .. Towards New Achievements

Written by: Alaa Al Sheeti

In the beginning of every Year, it is customary that people exchange congratulations and best wishes for one another hoping the New Year would be a positive turning point for each one.

We, at ACICO, hope to achieve more accomplishments during the New Year through the prudent management of our Executive Management and expertise of our personnel who constitute the backbone of confronting the numerous challenges we encountered during our march.

The real challenges anticipated in 2015 are represented in finding appropriate investment opportunities and transforming them to significant assets through which we manage to realize the aspirations of both the company and the shareholders simultaneously.

We are very optimistic towards the future and pursue success through strategic planning.

Finally, we at ACICO, would like to advocate for the slogan:

“Happy New Year ... with a new achievement”.
